

Alan Carr

Alan Carr certainly has added sparkle to the comedy circuit and is quickly becoming a household name. Renowned for his camp demeanour and innuendo-based jokes. He has written for 'Lily Live', Lily Savage's show and has done various voice-overs including Comfort. Alan has his own monthly show at the Manchester Comedy Store 'Alan Carr's Ice Cream Sunday', a night of comedy and cabaret that has established itself as a must see show in Manchester attracting regular celebrity fans.

Credits

TV

- The Friday Night Project (Ch4)
- Alan Carr's Celebrity Ding Dong (Ch4)
- Never Mind The Buzzcocks (BBC)

Stage

- Alan & Friends At The Fringe Comedy Galla
- Alan Carr
- I Love Alan Carr
- Me'ead's Spinnin'

Festivals

- Edinburgh Festival
- Latitude Festival
- Cat Laughs (Kilkenny)
- Reading & Leeds Festivals

Awards

Won

- 2007 British Comedy Award Best Live Stand Up
- 2007 Cosmopolitan Celebrity Men of the Year
- 2007 LAFTA's Funniest Double Act
- 2006 Best In Show - Sheffield Festival
- 2006 The Golden Rose of Montreaux Best Entertainment Show
- 2001 BBC New Comedy Award

Current Projects

- Monthly Show - Alan Carr's Ice Cream Sunday
- Filming - The Friday Night Project

"Belly achingly Funny." The Sunday Telegraph

"The most exciting and most talked about comedian on the live comedy circuit today." The Sunday Herald

"Sharp, sassy material with pitch perfect comic timing."

The List