

Ricky Grover

video clips

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4RPhBs4a-is>

Multi-award winning comedian, actor and writer Ricky Grover has an impressive list of TV & film credits and is a hugely popular and explosive act, on both the national and international comedy circuit. Born and bred in the East End of London, Ricky was an ex champion boxer and hairdresser before taking the comedy scene by storm. Ricky is one of Britain's top stand-up comedians, who headlines everywhere he plays, including Jongleurs and The Comedy Store. His alter ego 'Bulla' writes a monthly page in Front magazine.

Credits

TV

- Black Books (Ch4)
- Bulla Meets Parkinson (BBC)
- Jack Dee's Full Mountie (BBC)
- Later Than you Think (BBC)
- Murder Most Horrid (BBC)
- Red Dwarf (BBC)

Stage

- Who's The Guv'nor?

Festivals

- Edinburgh
- Glastonbury
- Reading

Awards

- 1997 Berlin International Film Festival Silver Bear Award for his short film 'Punch'.
- 2000 Best European Short Film Festival Best Actor Award for his performance in 'Hungry'.

Current Projects

- His latest film, 'Therapy', is currently in production.
- Jongleurs Bristol
- Comedy Café

"Hilarious." The Sun

"Absolute knockout." Guardian

"Ricky Grover, born and bred in London's East End, is probably one of the funniest men I have ever seen."

The Independent on Sunday