

Terry Alderton

This outstanding comic (and ex-Southend goalkeeper!) hurtles you through an ad-libbed Riot of exuberant, loose-limbed physical comedy; full of extraordinary caricatures and stunningly acute impressions. Combine that with a fearless onstage presence, unshakeable confidence and his streetwise hyperactive delivery, Terry always leaves his audience exhilarated and exhausted with laughter. Terry is a popular choice in the corporate market, lending his unique brand of comedy to after dinner entertainment as well as awards and event hosting.
